

PROGRAM IMPACT

EduCare After School Program participants are graduating at a

21-30% HIGHER RATE

than non-participants.

(2015-2016)

non-participants

participants

Since 1990 EduCare has served over

230,000 students

36,000 teachers & parents

425 schools

EduCare ACE Program participants were 17%

more likely to achieve LAUSD's proficient attendance standard (96% school day attendance; no more than 7 absences during the school year) than non-participants.

(2015-2016)

11.4% more likely to meet or exceed standards in math than participants in the general after school program

AND

19.3% more likely than non-after school program participants.

(2015-2016)

The percentage of credits earned by EduCare After School Program participants was 15% greater than non-participants.

(2015-2016)

41

the number of middle and high schools where EduCare is the lead After School Program

(2017-2018)

49

the number of middle and high schools where EduCare provides the ACE Program

108

the number of middle and high schools with EduCare Student Support Services

(2017-2018)

6,668

the number of students who participated in EduCare's ACE Program

(2017-2018)

30,343

the number of students who participated in EduCare's After School Programs

(2017-2018)

